

Japan Studies Association of Canada / Association canadienne d'études sur le Japon

カナダ日本研究学会

CALL FOR PAPERS

The commemorative 25th annual conference of the Japan Studies Association of Canada [JSAC] will be held at Carleton University in Ottawa, between October 11-14, 2012.

The organizing committee will assess any and all presentation proposals ; however, prospective participants are being asked to particularly consider the following themes:

*3/11/11- the socio-economic, political , cultural and international aspects .

*KANREKI: the 60th anniversary of the implementation of the San Francisco Peace Treaty.

* Nihon Maru in the “Asian Century.”

May 15th, 2012 is the deadline for paper and panel proposals [ to include presenter/s details , presentation title and a maximum 100-word synopsis]. They should be sent to Dr.Jacob Kovalio at jacob\_kovalio@carleton.ca Dr. Kovalio can also be reached by phone at 613-520-2600 [2839]. In addition to established colleagues, JSAC is highly interested in attracting the active participation of graduate students in its annual conferences – the perfect venue for direct intergenerational professional interaction.

The Organizing Committee looks forward to hosting Canadian and international Japan specialists for this two-day professional event , in the fascinating environment of Canada’s National Capital Region in the Fall.